“We cannot bring to the world the Good News which is Christ himself in person if we ourselves are not deeply united with Christ, if we do not know him profoundly, personally, if we do not live on his words” (Benedict XVI, after his Lenten retreat 2006).

The retreat consists of:

- Several periods of guided prayer before the Blessed Sacrament
- Time for personal reflection and examination
- Opportunity to attend Mass and avail of the Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Some talks on virtues and other aspects of living the Faith in one’s work and family life
- Praying the Rosary and the Stations of the Cross
